List the Potential Conflicts

Study the picture provided. You are the driver of the vehicle behind the truck. Answer the questions to the right.

1. List four potential problems that may change your path of travel.
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
2. What actions might you need to take?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
3. What would you do if a vehicle from behind began to pass you?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
4. What potential problem might the roadway cause in your path of travel?
 - a. _____
5. Should any of the vehicles shown prepare to pass in this situation?
 - a. _____

Determine Driver Actions

The diagram to the right shows a divided multilane highway. The highway has a crossover area for traffic from the east to enter in order for them to travel south.

Vehicle B wants to cross over then turn left.

Vehicles A and D are both traveling northbound.

Vehicles E and F are traveling southbound.

Vehicle C is a tractor-semitrailer that is stalled on the roadway.

Study the diagram. Determine which action (listed below) each vehicle's driver should take. Write the letter of the vehicle on the blank next to each action.

- _____ 1. Lane change as soon as possible.
- _____ 2. Remain stopped until all northbound traffic clears.
- _____ 3. Get out of the mirror blind spot of the car as soon as traffic clears.
- _____ 4. Establish a 3-second following position.
- _____ 5. Sound the horn.
- _____ 6. Engage the hazard flashers.

Chapter 10: Driving in Rural Areas

Activity 1

Practicing Passing

You are driving car X, traveling at 50 mph on a straight, level highway. The car ahead of you is traveling slowly at a speed you estimate to be 35 mph. Using the diagram at the left, answer the questions below about passing.

1. Why should you check each area listed below before deciding to pass?

Area A: _____

Area B: _____

Area C: _____

Area D: _____

Area E: _____

2. If this stretch of roadway was a no-passing zone, what sign and roadway marking could inform you?

3. If all checks indicate that it is safe to pass, what must you do before changing lanes? Tell how to alert the driver ahead.

4. As you change lanes to begin to pass, the car you plan to pass increases speed to 50 mph. What should you do?

5. What should the driver ahead do while you are passing?

6. After passing, when is it safe to return to the right lane?

7. What steps should you take to return to the right lane?
